A TOMB WITH A VIEW

DIRECTED BY TORA BRAY & PRODUCED BY MICHAEL WALKER

The action takes place in the library of Monument House, the home of Septimus Tomb (recently deceased) and his family.

In a sinister old library, a dusty lawyer reads a will (involving some millions of pounds) to an equally sinister family - one member of which has werewolf tendencies, another wanders around in a toga, a third is a gentle lady who plants more than seeds in her flower beds. Also present are the resident nurse and an author of romantic novels.

By the third Act there are more corpses than live members left in the cast. All is revealed as the plot twists and turns to its surprising conclusion.
