By kind permission of Samuel French

Tiptoe Through the Tombstones

Mortimer Crayle, the crusty solicitor, and his secretary have gathered the remaining members of the Tomb family at Monument House ostensibly to inform this off beat bunch about their inheritance. In reality, Crayle has designs on the estate that necessitate eliminating all Tombs. As fog descends on the gloomy mansion, in the cobwebby corridors things and people are seldom what they seem. Poison is in every decanter and there are mysterious disappearances as hosts and guests join the rising pile of bodies in the cellar.
